The Institute of Genealogy and Historical Research (IGHR) Attendee Handbook (8 1/2" wide x 11" tall) is used daily during the week-long institute. It typically includes a schedule of events, list of faculty and attendees, surnames of interest, next year's courses, information about database access, and more. All faculty and students will receive a pdf copy of the IGHR Attendee Handbook providing your organization with targeted access to genealogists, archivists, historians, librarians, and teachers. The total number of expected attendees is 350 - 375. Visit ighr.gagensociety.org to learn more about IGHR hosted by the Georgia Genealogical Society (GGS).
